

isolved named a Leader in Core HR Tech Plus Talent Management According to Research Firm ISG!

HR departments are looking to move from an operational function to a strategic business driver—but they need supporting human capital management (HCM) technology to help them make the switch.

ISG®, a leading global technology research and advisory firm, recently evaluated multiple solution providers that serve small and midmarket companies. In its Provider Lens™ evaluation for Human Capital Management (HCM) Platforms, they named isolved a Leader in Core HR and Talent Management.

Highlights include:

Customer-inspired innovation based on People Hero feedback

Concentrated industry focus, spanning many verticals

Scalable technology that gives SMBs a competitive advantage

"The key to isolved's market success is its understanding of clients and insights gleaned during product design. The company's commitment to customer success, including its year-round roadshows across the U.S., differentiates it in the HCM software industry."
